INTERNET:CRITICAL

ASSOCIATION OF INTERNET RESEARCHERS - INTERNET RESEARCH 10.0 CONFERENCE

Internet Research 10.0 - Internet: Critical is the 10th annual conference of the Association of Internet Researchers (AoIR), an international association for students and scholars in any discipline in the field of Internet studies.

Internet: Critical will provide a space for interdisciplinary researchers to reflect on, describe, interrogate, challenge, and stake new claims to various critical Internet issues, including:

- * critical moments, elements, practices
- * critical theories, methods, constructs
- * critical voices, histories, texts
- * critical networks, junctures, spaces
- * critical technologies, artifacts, failures
- * critical ethics, interventions, alternatives
